Charles-Town, July 1, 1771.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſquire, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief in over the ſaid Province:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Complaint has been lately made to me by the CATAWBA INDIANS, that ſundry Perſons have moleſted them in their Hunting Grounds; and particularly, that about the 12th Day of June laſt, divers Perſons, to the Number of Twenty-ſix, went to the Camp of a Party of their Nation, deſtroyed their Skins, and beat them very ſeverely; all which is contrary to the Agreement ſtipulated in a Treaty for the Preſervation and Continuance of a firm and perfect Peace and Friendſhip between His Majeſty and the ſeveral Indian Tribes therein named, which was ratified at a Congreſs, held at Auguſta, in the Province of Georgia, on the tenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, by their Excellencies James Wright, Eſq; Governor of Georgia; Arthur Dobbs, Eſq; Governor of North-Carolina; Thomas Boone, Eſq; Governor of South-Carolina; the Honourable Francis Fauquier, Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia; and John Stuart, Eſq; Agent and Superintendant of Southern Indian Affairs, and the ſeveral Indian Chiefs who were authorized and empowered by their reſpective Nations to ratify and conclude the ſame: By the ſecond and third Articles of which Treaty, it was concluded and agreed, that His Majeſty's Subjects, and the aforeſaid ſeveral Nations of Indians, ſhould for ever thereafter be looked upon as one people; and the Governors and Superintendant did engage, for themſelves and their Succeſſors, as far as they could, that they would always give due Attention to the Intereſt of the Indians, and will be ready on all Occaſions to do them full and ample Juſtice. And by the fourth Article of the ſame Treaty, the Catawba Headmen and Warriors did, in Confirmation of an Agreement before that Time entered into with the White People, declare, that they would remain ſatisfied with the Tract of Land of Fifteen Miles Square, a Survey of which, by their Conſent, and at their Requeſt, was then already begun; and the reſpective Governors and Superintendant, on their Parts, did promiſe and engage, that the aforeſaid Survey ſhould be completed, and that the Catawbas ſhould not, in any Reſpect, be moleſted by any of the King's Subjects, within the ſaid Lines, but ſhould be indulged in the uſual Manner of Hunting elſewhere; which Privilege is further confirmed to them by an Act of Aſſembly of this Province, paſſed the 23d Day of June, 1769, intitled, "An "ACT for the Preſervation of Deer, and to prevent the Miſchiefs "ariſing from hunting at unſeaſonable Times," as it is provided that nothing therein ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to deprive the Indians in Amity with this Province, of any Rights or Privileges they are entitled unto by Virtue of any Treaty ſubſiſting between them and this Province. AND WHEREAS it may be attended with bad Conſequences to the People of this Province, if ſuch Outrages are not remedied, and for the future prevented: I THEREFORE have thought fit, by the Advice of his Majeſty's Honourable Council, to iſſue this my Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly requiring all His Majeſty's Subjects to be careful not to moleſt the ſaid Indians, in their Hunting, or in any other Way injure them in their Rights, reſerved to them by the ſaid Treaty and Act of Aſſembly. AND I do hereby require and command all Judges, Juſtices, Conſtables, and other Peace Officers, to be diligent in preſerving to the ſaid Indians, their ſeveral Rights and Privileges, reſerved to them by the ſaid Treaty and Act of Aſſembly, and to take proper Meaſures, to bring to due Puniſhment, any Perſon who ſhall preſume to offend contrary thereto.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of His Majeſty's ſaid Province, the Twelfth Day of July, Anno Domini 1771, and in the Eleventh Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By His Honour's Command,
GEORGE MURRAY, pro Secretary.

From the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, of July 8.

WILMINGTON, (North-Carolina) MAY 21.

It is faid, the chief complaints of the Regulators are againſt the many enormities, extortions, and exactions, practiſed on them by lawyers, clerks, regiſters, ſheriffs, &c. againſt whom a great number of actions have been brought for their extortion, but the trials were always put off, except a few againſt Col. Fanning, late ſheriff, who from nothing, has within a few years raiſed a great fortune by extortion, and grinding the face of the poor; and even thoſe were put off court after court, till the evidence were tired out.—That ſome of them (the Regulators) who live at a diſtance from the place of holding the court, have, for a trifling debt of 43*s.* been obliged to pay 56*l.* coſt, and executions iſſued out for 148*l.* more. And one of them who lent a horſe to an attorney, and only for aſking it of him again, was put into priſon and ruined. Others have attended court after court, for two years and upwards, with their complaints, and have brought themſelves to the brink of ruin, by their attendance, and coſt of malicious proſecutions, and were no nearer of having their grievances redreſſed than at firſt. Many complaints they have of the like nature, which, notwithſtanding the governor had formerly promiſed them the aſſiſtance of the attorney-general, they could obtain no redreſs; and therefore, out of love to themſelves and poſterity, they were determined to contend unwearied for their conſtitutional rights and privileges, and to keep their money till they had ſome probability or aſſurance that it would be applied towards the ſupport of government; and that if they muſt fall a ſacrifice to the military force, they ſhall not be the firſt, but will bear it, for death itſelf was better than ſuch ſlavery.

From the MASSACHUSETTS SPY, of JUNE 27.

To GOVERNOR TRYON.

SIR,

AS we hear the preſſes in North-Carolina are entirely at your devotion, and even theſe confeſs it is dangerous to reaſon in reach of your artillery, I will preſume to aſk you ſome queſtions in this channel, which though ſurrounded by ſhips of war, dares tell the boldeſt tyrant he is a traitor and villain. Theſe queſtions you may anſwer as you pleaſe, or being ſo notable a patron of pettifoggers, you may, by a ſalary, prevail on our redoubted Impavidus to vindicate your avarice, ambition, injuſtice, perjury, perfidy and murder.

Query I. Was it not the evident deſign, and an object that lay near the heart of that father of his people, George the ſecond, that the Carolinas ſhould be ſettled with induſtrious huſbandmen?

Query II. Would not your fame have had a better chance of reaching future generations in the condition a good man ſhould wiſh, had you encouraged this gracious undertaking by a ſtrict and impartial adminiſtration of juſtice among your people, than by managing their repreſentatives in ſuch a manner as to impoveriſh a whole province in building a palace for you?

Query III. Is not your avowed connivance at the enormous villanies of the banditti of robbers, your judges, ſheriffs, and pettifoggers, a tranſlation of all their accumulated iniquities to yourſelf.

Query IV. By what laws do you vindicate the trial of an able and generous planter, by a court-martial, and actually inflicting 100 laſhes upon him, for refuſing to take arms againſt brethren, drove by your intolerable and multiplied oppreſſions to defend themſelves?

Query V. How do you account for the acknowledged perfidy of tryon on a people with a full diſcharge of artillery, &c. while under the ſacred bond of a treaty, the obſervance of which might have been expected even from a Saracen?

Query VI. What ſhall we in future think of the term Loyaliſt, ſhould it continue any time to be excluſively applied to executioners, traitors, robbers, and murderers?

Your direct and ſatisfactory anſwer to each of theſe intereſting interrogatories, is demanded by LEONIDAS.

NEWBERN, JUNE 28.

Juſt before the Battle between our Troops and the Regulators began, they ſent his Excellency the following PETITION.

To his Excellency WILLIAM TRYON, Eſquire, his Majeſty's Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of NORTH-CAROLINA.

The PETITION of us the Inhabitants of ORANGE County.

Humbly ſheweth,

Firſt. THAT we have often been informed of late, that your Excellency is determined not to lend a kind ear to the juſt complaints of the people in regard to having roguiſh officers diſcarded, and others more honeſt propogated in their ſtead; and ſheriffs and other officers in power who have abuſed the truſt repoſed in them, to be brought to a clear, candid, and impartial account for their paſt conduct, and other grievances of the like nature, we have long laboured under, without any apparent hopes of redreſs.

Secondly. That your Excellency is determined on taking the lives of many of the inhabitants of this county and others adjacent to it; which perſons being nominated in the advertiſement, we know them to be men of the moſt remarkable honeſt characters of any in our country. Theſe aſperſions, though daily confirmed to us, yet ſcarcely gains credit with the more polite amongſt us; ſtill, being ſo often confirmed, we cannot help having ſome ſmall jealouſies abounding among us. In order therefore to remove them, we would heartily implore your Excellency, that of your clemency you would ſo far indulge us as to let us know, (by a kind anſwer to this Petition) whether your Excellency will lend an impartial ear to our Petitions or no; which, if we can be aſſured of, we will with joy embrace ſo favourable an opportunity of laying them before your Excellency, with a full ſtetait of all our grievances, and remain in full hopes and confidence of being redreſſed by your Excellency, in each and every of them, as far as lies in your power; which happy change would yield ſuch alacrity, and promulgate ſuch harmony in poor penſive NORTH-CAROLINA, that the ſaid paſtaged tragedy of the warlike troops marching with ardour to meet each other, may, by the happy conduct of our leaders on each ſide be prevented. The intereſt of a whole province, and the lives of his Majeſty's ſubjects, are not toys, or matters to be trifled with. Many of our common people are mightily inflamed with the horrid alarms we have heard; but we ſtill hope they have been wrong repreſented. The chief purport of this ſmall petition, being to know whether your Excellency will hear our petition or no; we hope for a ſpeedy and candid anſwer. In the mean time, your humble Petitioners ſhall remain in full hopes and confidence of having a kind anſwer.

And as in duty bound ſhall ever pray, &c.

Signed in behalf of the Country, by

JOHN WILLIAMS,
SAMUEL LAW,
JAMES WILSON,
JOSEPH SCOTT,
SAMUEL CLARK,

To which his Excellency ſent the following ANSWER:

GREAT ALAMANCE CAMP, May 16. 1771.

IN anſwer to your Petition, I am to acquaint you that I have ever been attentive to the true intereſt of this country, and to that of every Individual reſiding within it; lament the fatal neceſſity to which you have reduced me, by withdrawing yourſelves from the mercy of the Crown and the laws of your country, to require you, who are aſſembled as Regulators, to lay down your arms, ſurrender up the outlawed ringleaders, and ſubmit yourſelves to the laws of your country, and then reſt on the lenity and mercy of Government. By accepting theſe terms in one hour from the delivery of this diſpatch, you will prevent an effuſion of blood, as you are at this time in a ſtate of war and rebellion againſt your King, your Country, and your Laws.

To the people now aſſembled in arms who ſtyle themſelves Regulators.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſquire, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief in over the ſaid Province:

A South-Carolina GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

[NUMB. 1866.] TUESDAY JULY 23, 1771.

From the LONDON GAZETTE, MAY 28.

MUNICH, MAY 12.

THIS Country, which uſed to be the granary of Tirol, Switzerland, and of ſeveral unfruitful territories, is now reduced to great extremity, and the government is wholly employed in relieving it. For this purpoſe, one hundred large barrels of flour, which had lain in one of the city ſtorehouſes ever ſince the year 1632, when Guſtavus Adolphus ravaged Bavaria, have been examined; and though reduced to a kind of ſtone, are found, in ſome degree, ſerviceable, by a proper mixture of freſh meal; and the bread, made in this manner, is diſtributed to the poor. Many expedients are taking to procure corn from Italy and Auſtria; and all perſons, who have no viſible occupations, are ordered to leave the city; the ſubjects to retire to their reſpective habitations; and the foreigners to remove out of the ſtate.

The ſituation of Ratiſbon is ſtill more deplorable, as they have but ſmall hopes of eſcaping a famine: And at Augſburgh, the poorer ſort of people are reduced to ſubſiſt on a kind of bread made of the bark of beech and alder, into which a ſmall quantity of ſpice is worked; though, from its heating quality, it is of itſelf liable to produce diſorders.

LONDON, MAY 29.

Yeſterday the Earl of Bute ſet out with his family from South Audley-ſtreet, for his ſeat at Sutton Hoo, in Bedfordſhire.

Yeſterday there was a court of Common-Council, but no court of Aldermen.

It was reſolved and ordered, that it be referred to the committee appointed to aſſiſt the Lord Mayor and Alderman Oliver in the Tower, to ſtate caſes, and take opinions, whether there is any, and what method, to bring into a courſe of trial the legality of an impriſonment by a vote of either Houſe of Parliament.

It was further reſolved, that in caſe the ſaid committee ſhould be adviſed, that the legality of the commitment of the Lord Mayor and Alderman Oliver can be put into a due courſe of trial at law, they be authorized ſo to do.

Mr. Alderman Sawbridge, we are told, is to be Lord Mayor the next year, againſt the efforts of Mr. Wilkes's friends, who ſeem determined upon a re-election of the preſent chief Magiſtrate. The buſineſs of Midſummer-day will, however, determine this matter pretty clearly; and there will be no doubt of Mr. Sawbridge's ſucceſs, if the ſhrievalty ſhould fall upon Mr. Alderman Oliver.

MAY 30.

Yeſterday, at a feaſt held by the Draper's company, of which Mr. Alderman Oliver is maſter, it was reſolved unanimouſly to ſupport his election for Sheriff the year enſuing, and of ſuch other gentlemen as ſhould be joined with him. It was alſo reſolved to meet at the hall on Midſummer-day, in their gowns, and to go in proceſſion to the election.

Mr. Stephen, author of the pamphlet on the illegality of impriſonment for debt, has entered himſelf of the Temple for the ſtudy of the law.

The trial of Edward Twine Carpenter, for aſſaulting Mr. Wheble, was expected to come on this day at Guildhall; but at 12 o'clock it had not been called for.

The emperor of Germany is grown ſo jealous of the diſcipline and other military regulations introduced among his troops, that he will not permit even the moſt experienced General in his army to review them, except in his own preſence; nay, even on the common field days, he riſes very early in the morning, to be preſent at the exerciſe of the battalions.

MAY 31.

Yeſterday there was but a very thin court and drawing room at St. James's; afterwards Lords North and Denbigh had a conference with his Majeſty.

A council is ſummoned to meet this day at St. James's, after the levee is over.

Yeſterday a full board of treaſury was held, at which Lord North preſided.

The ſame day boards of admiralty and trade were held, when ſeveral matters relative to trade and the navy were taken into conſideration.

It is certain a great coolneſs ſubſiſts between the Thane and the Premier.

Lord Weymouth, it is ſaid, will go to Ireland on the return of Lord Townſhend, for whom the ordnance is deſigned, with the army appointments, as alſo a vacant ribband.

Wedneſday Lord Ligonier, accompanied by the Earl of Pembroke, waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, with whom he had a long conference.

Lord Bute, we are told, has determined never to accept of any public employment for the future; but that he will be concerned in as much private as may be thought proper.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated May 20, 1771.

"The diſtractions of this country daily increaſe: The Princes of the blood, and the parliaments of France, are united in one firm body to oppoſe the tyranny of the court; and the King of Spain, as a Prince of the Houſe of Bourbon, is ſtrongly attached to them, and determined to ſupport them againſt the court of Verſailles, whoſe politics he deteſts, and whoſe plan he abhors, for re-eſtabliſhing the Jeſuits in France. The ſine qua non of the Princes of the blood is, the reſtitution to all the parliaments of France of their original conſtitutional privileges; their freedom of debate, of annulling and regiſtering of parliamentary edicts, and the diſmiſſion for ever from the ſervice of France the following regiments of mercenaries, the ſtrongeſt ſupport of tyranny in France, and at this criſis the only foundation for abſolute government: Cavalry, Royal Lorrain; Dragoons, Jarnac, Schonberg; Infantry, Swiſs Guards, Alſace, Anhalt, Royal Italien, D'Erlach, Boccard, Sonnenberg, Caſtella, Waldner, Jenner, La Marck, Dieſbach, Courten, Bulkeley, Clare, Dillon, Royal Suedois, Walſh, Berwick, Royal Baviere, Salis, Royal Corſe, Naſſau, Lochman, Royal Deux Ponts, Eptingen, Buttafaco; Light Infantry, Legion de Lorrain, Legion de Corſe.

"Very diſagreeable news arrived by a courier laſt night from Straſburgh, and this morning it is ſaid the Empreſs Queen has complied with the requeſt of our court, to form a camp this ſummer of forty battalions near Bruſſels—not to attack France, but to ſtifle thoſe ſparks of liberty that begin to blaze in the different parliaments of France."

JUNE 1.

The public may depend on the authenticity of the following important intelligence. The terms of the treaty of peace, on the eve of being concluded between Ruſſia and the Porte, under the mediation of the Courts of Berlin and Vienna, are theſe: Belgrade, and all the forts on the Danube, to its mouth, to be ceded to Auſtria as a barrier againſt the Turks. Bender ceded to the ſame power as a barrier againſt the Ruſſians. The intermediate countries between the Neiſter and Danube, to remain neutral, under their princes and wayvodes. The Danube to bound the Turkiſh dominions in Europe. All the coaſt the Black Sea with its ports and harbours, comprehending thoſe of the Crimea—ceded to Ruſſia. The Crim-Tartars to become nominally independant. The Ruſſians not to have the free navigation of the Boſphorus and Helleſpont, and to evacuate the Archipelago and its iſles. The Throne of Poland to be declared vacant; and a free election permitted, by withdrawing of all foreign troops, which might overawe the diet. The candidates for the Poliſh throne to be the Elector of Saxony, the preſent King, and an Archduke. Should the election not fall on the preſent King, (which is generally believed it will not) he is to retain the title of King, to which will be annexed the Duchy of Panin. The King of Pruſſia to cede his part of Sileſia to Auſtria; and to receive Poliſh Pruſſia and Dantzick in lieu of it, guaranteed by Auſtria. The only obſtacle which retards the completion of the above treaty, is the neutrality of the countries between the Neiſter and Danube, which the Houſe of Auſtria wiſh to erect into a Sovereignty for a branch of their family; the French and Spaniſh Courts, in the mean time, uſe all their influence at Vienna and Conſtantinople, to break a treaty, in which the King of Pruſſia is the umpire between the contending parties. France whoſe finances will be in a good way after an inteaded public bankruptcy, inſinuates that a ceſſion extorted from the Porte can never be ſecure; ſhe therefore propoſes to the Auſtrians to take part in the war againſt Ruſſia, and, upon that condition, to procure a voluntary ceſſion of all the Turkiſh dominions to the eaſt of the Danube, without any condition of neutrality.—Spain, to induce the court of Vienna to this ſtep, offers a large ſubſidy in money; whilſt the French propoſe to enter Germany with an army. The King of Pruſſia has not confined all his views to this treaty. That active genius, by a mixture of policy and force, is taking ſteps to form the United Provinces into a limited monarchy, for the family of Orange. The intrigues on this important affair have long ſince begun; and it is ſuppoſed, that the conſpiracy for the diſſolution of the Republic is already far advanced.

On Tueſday Lord Grantham ſet out to embark for his embaſſy at the court of Spain; his Lordſhip is to go by the way of Paris, where he will make a ſhort ſtay.

Yeſterday the Committee for managing the cauſe of the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor and Mr. Alderman Oliver had a conſultation with his Lordſhip at the Manſion-houſe, when proſecutions were ordered to be commenced againſt Sir Fletcher Norton.

The Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor has ordered that the city barge, the water bailiff, city watermen, and ſeveral particular officers, be in readineſs to attend him on Tueſday next, on his intended ſurvey of the river. His Lordſhip will be at leaſt ſix days on this buſineſs, as indictments are intended to be preferred againſt all encroachments. The City Marſhal has orders to attend the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor, with city conſtables within the juriſdiction of the city, to keep the peace in caſe of oppoſition, in pulling down encroachments on the river.

Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, dated May 28.

"About two o'clock this day the following account was received from the Hague: Yeſterday at a general review ſeveral loaded arms were diſcharged from the Swiſs corps. The great favourite, the Duke of Wolfenbuttle, received a ſhot through the heel of his ſhoe. A captain of the guards is dangerouſly wounded, and many perſons on the field were hurt. His Highneſs the Prince of Orange got off in a precipitate manner. We are waiting for more particulars, before we ſhall be able to judge about the cauſe of this miſchief."

VIENNA, MAY 15.

By the mediation of the Imperial and Pruſſian Reſidents at Conſtantinople, the Porte have agreed to conduct the Ruſſian miniſter, Obreſkow, to the frontiers of Ruſſia, and there to diſcharge him and his retinue. It is expected that he will arrive about the end of this, or the beginning of the next month. The ſublime Porte has likewiſe agreed to the mediation of the ſame powers, though not in a formal manner, towards a final pacification.

PORTSMOUTH, MAY 30.

Orders arrived for all the Captains belonging to this diviſion of Marines to go immediately to the different parts of this kingdom to recruit; and in conſequence ſome are already gone, and the others preparing to go, to the ſeveral places where ordered.

We hear that ſeveral of the guard-ſhips at this and other ports, are ordered to be got ready for ſea immediately. It is ſaid they are to cruize for ſix weeks, as a fleet of obſervation, in the Bay of Biſcay; and this morning in conſequnce they began to make preparations.
